

DAVID H. CHANCE

David & Jennifer Chance and Associates
53 Pond Hill Road
Lunenburg, Vermont 05906
(802) 892-5923
DavidChance@DavidChance.net
www.DavidChance.net

EDUCATION

- Graduate of Woodstock School, Mussoorie, India, 1959.
- Linfield College, 1959-61.
- University of Oregon, BA, European history, 1966.
- University of Oregon, courses in archaeology, 1967-68.
- University of Idaho, MA, anthropology, 1973.
- Washington State University, courses in social anthropology, 1979-80.
- University of Washington, courses in American social history and the history of science, 1974; 1981-83.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

1988 - Present: Principal Investigator, David & Jennifer Chance and Associates:

- Historian: Upper Columbia fur trade, Nat. Park Service & Bonneville Power.
- Archaeologist: Warren, S. Fork Salmon River, Midvale Telephone.
- Historian: Puget's Sound Agricultural Co., Nat. Park Svc. & Air Force.
- Archaeologist: City of Rocks National Reserve, National Park Service.
- Historian: homestead settlement of N.E. Washington, Forest Service.
- Ethno-historian: Sylvis Vision Quest Trail of the Kalispel, Plum Creek Timber.
- Expert Witness: history of the Palus & Nez Perce tribes, Colville Confederated Tribes & the U.S. District Court for Oregon.
- Curator: historical & ethnographic photo archives, National Park Service.
- Archaeologist: Milner hydroelectric project, Idaho Power Company.
- Archaeologist: surveys for prescribed burns & timber sales, Salmon Nat. Forest.
- Historian: St. Paul's Mission, National Park Service.
- Archaeologist: Rockford historic landscapes, SRI International & Air Force.
- Historian: timber industry of N.E. Washington, Forest Service.
- Historian: Snake Indian War of Oregon, Nevada, and Idaho, University of Idaho.
- Historical Cartographer: Oregon Trail; Calif./Applegate Trail at City of Rocks.
- Consulting Archaeologist: Nez Perce Tribe of Idaho.

1983 – 1988: Research Scientist & Principal Investigator, University of Idaho:

- Acting Director: Bowers Laboratory of Anthropology, 1986-87.
- Adjunct Professor: University of Idaho. Seminar in historical archaeology; master's degree advisor in archaeology and ethno-history.
- Archaeologist, cartographer: White Bird Battlefield, Nez Perce National Historic Park.
- Historian of Fort Lawton: Geo-Recon International & the City of Seattle.
- Archaeologist: Hatiupuh Village, Snake River, Corps of Engineers.
- Archaeologist: Fort Lapwai, Dept. of Housing & Urban Development.
- Ethno-historian: ancient ways of the Quinault, Washington coast.
- Archaeologist: Fort Spokane excavations, National Park Service.
- Archaeologist: Nez Perce historic homesteads, Bureau of Indian Affairs.
- Archaeologist: Developed the Mean Ratio Distance with collaborators.
- Curator: Don Crabtree lithic technology collections.
- Exhibit designer & curator: University of Idaho Museum.
- Historical cartographer: Fort Spokane.
- Ethnographer, cartographer: Nez Perce toponymy of Elmer Paul.

1981 - 1983: Teaching Associate in American History, University of Washington.

1974 -1982: Research Associate, Institute for Environmental Studies, University of Washington:

- Director, Kanaka Village (HBC) & Vancouver Barracks excavations.

1970-1983: Research Associate & Principal Investigator, University of Idaho:

- Instructor: "Seminar in Historic archaeology."
- Instructor: "Introduction to Archaeology & Physical Anthropology."
- Archaeologist: Lake Roosevelt excavations, Bureau of Reclamation.
- Archaeologist: Lapwai Excavations, National Park Service.
- Historian: Fort Colville of the HBC, National Park Service.
- Historian: military Fort Spokane, National Parks Association.
- Consulting Archaeologist: Corps of Engineers, Columbia River.
- Consulting Archaeologist: Bureau of Indian Affairs, Idaho.
- Historian: Kootenai fur trade, Corps of Engineers, Seattle.
- Archaeologist: Spalding Mission Excavations, National Park Service.

1966 -1969: Research Associate, Oregon Museum of Natural History:

- Archaeological Field Assistant, John Day Project, Columbia River, 3 years, University of Oregon.
- Archaeological Field Assistant, Macks Canyon, Grande Ronde, Chiloquin excavations and surveys.
- Consulting Archaeologist: Seconded to the Bureau of Land Management.

1966 – 67: Washington State University:

- Field Assistant, Lower Granite Project.
- Field Director, Coulee Dam Project.

MILITARY SERVICE

1961 -1964: Army:

- Contingency plans writer: Trois Fontaines, France.

ARCHIVAL RESEARCH

- More than seventy archives have been consulted including the National Archives, Washington & Suitland; Library of Congress, the Jefferson & Madison branches; Smithsonian (National Anthropological Archives); Indian Claims Commission; British Museum; Public Records Office, London; Hudson's Bay Company, London & Winnipeg; Huntington Library; Bancroft Collection, Berkeley; New York Public Library; Oregon Historical Society; Oregon State Archives; Idaho Historical Society; Seattle Federal Records Center; Jesuit Province Archives, Gonzaga University; Washington State Archives; Nevada State Archives; Montana State Historical Society; Washington State Supreme Court; Provincial Archives of British Columbia; National Museum of India; Presbyterian Historical Society, Philadelphia; American Baptist Historical Society, Rochester.

ARCHAEOLOGICAL EXCAVATIONS

- Lake Roosevelt (Grand Coulee Dam Reservoir), Washington
- Kanaka Village (Fort Vancouver)/Vancouver Barracks, Washington
- Lapwai Creek/Spalding Mission/Fort Lapwai, Idaho
- Fort Spokane, Washington
- City of Rocks National Reserve, Idaho
- Hatiupuh Village, Snake River, Washington

ARCHAEOLOGICAL SURVEYS, INVENTORIES & EVALUATIONS

Various locations and projects in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, and California.

PUBLICATIONS, REPORTS & PAPERS

Please see website: www.DavidChance.net